

The Pilgrimage to Santiago: History, Art, Economics, and Religion in

Spain

Program Fee:
$4600 (4 credits, 2 meals/day, housing, in-country transportation, entrance fees and guides)

This course takes students to Spain to study the ancient pilgrimage route called the Camino de Santiago. We consider the religious, historical, artistic, culinary, and economic aspects of the Camino, and visit Madrid, Burgos, Leon, and Santiago de Compostela and the great cathedrals, monasteries, museums, restaurants, and landscape along the way.

- Madrid
- Burgos
- Leon
- Santiago de Compostela

MAY 15 - 30, 2017

For more information, contact WORLD at world@stetson.edu or Dr. Phillip Lucas at plucas@stetson.edu.

